Sibling Rivalry

There was a rumor going around that Ax's never-before-heard-about sister (I named her Aelin), was going to show up in 38. Though that didn't happen, I can just see that scene now.

::Ax and Aelin are about maybe a yard apart when this scene starts::

Ax: Get off of my grass!

Aelin: No, _you_ are on _my_ grass! Stay away from me, Aximili!

Ax: It's my grass! It is and it has been for forever!

Aelin: Sure it has. There's as much truth to that statement as there is to the fact that Kahila, the beautiful Kahila, loved you.

Ax: She did! I would have asked her to court me, but-

Aelin: But she didn't even know you existed. Aximili, utter another lie, and I'll tell Mother.

Ax: Hah! The only way you could tell Mother is by contacting her through primitive human technology. And that means improving it. And_ that_ means you will break our greatest law. And we wouldn't want Little Miss Do-Gooder to do that, now, would we?

Aelin: You are angering me, Aximili.

Ax: Yes, likewise.

Aelin: You are a haughty, arrogant fool.

Ax: At least I am able to hold off the Yeerks.

Aelin: You are merely a small part of the "Animorphs." And they do most of the work for you.

Ax: Mother loved me more.

Aelin: She did not!

Ax: Did so!

Aelin: Did not!

Ax: Did so! She told me!

Aelin: You are lying, Aximili! You are lying and you know it!

Ax: At least I know _something_. Unlike some people. And she does love me more!

Aelin: Of _course_ she does. You _are_ lying, Aximili. You have a face not even a mother could love.

Ax: And you have an ass that's so big, it needs its own scoop!

Aelin: Don't talk about yourself that way, Aximili. It's not nice. But while we're at it, you're so fat, when you walk, you have to have a U-Haul behind you.

Ax: You're so ugly, you have to trick-or-treat by telephone.

Aelin: You're so dumb, your IQ is measured in negative numbers!

Ax: You're so dumb, you look up to humans for their intelligence.

Tobias: ::swoops down and lands on a low branch near Ax and Aelin:: Is that so, Ax?

Ax: ::Looks up, embarrassed:: Oh, hello Tobias. That last statement-

Tobias: was stated behind humans' backs. That was mean and rude. You should be ashamed of yourself.

Ax: I only meant-

Tobias: I'm not done yet. The others would be deeply insulted _if_ they ever heard that. Which they're never going to. All I have to say is, good thing I'm not human.

Aelin: I thought you were a nothlit, a boy trapped in a bird's body.

Tobias: ::laughs a little:: That's what Rachel says. Nope, I'm bird, human, _and_ Andalite. Don't ask me how.

Aelin: _Sure _you're an Andalite.

Tobias: Drop it. I'm going to be gone for a while, so I won't be around to baby-sit you two. Don't kill each other.

::Tobias flies off, leaving Ax and Aelin alone::

Ax: Huytax!

Aelin: Dapsen!

Ax: ::looks around to make sure no one else is around:: Primitive _human_!

I'm guessing all you people will say it's short, pointless, or some other comment like that. I wrote this at 2 in the morning, after a couple of Cokes. I just had to get it out of my head. This argument was based on ones me and my sister have had. Not that you care . . .

Just review this, puh-leeze!
